FOUR VICTIMS OF CRAZED MAN IN MORGUE

FARMER SHOTS, KILLS WIFE, BABY, NEIGHBOR AND SELF

TOIVA KERENEN, WITNESS OF JOHN OLLILA'S WRATH, ESCAPES

CORONER OF DULUTH INVESTIGATING FLOODWOOD TRAGEDY

(By United Press)
Duluth, Minn., Oct. 23.—Culminating a threat of divorce, four bodies are in the morgue at Floodwood today, victims of a liquor-sodden Finn. John Ollila, 33, a farmer, shot and killed his wife, his baby, Louis Mattson, and himself, leaving a note to explain it all.

Toiva Keränen, a neighbor, escaped the wrath of Ollila and told the story. He said Ollila had been drinking a great deal and his wife telephoned that she could stand his cruelty no longer. Keränen and Mattson drove to the Ollila home between Floodwood and Wright, 40 miles west of here, and prepared to take Mrs. Ollila and her two-year old daughter to Duluth. There she was to obtain a divorce.

As they were loading her baggage Keränen said Ollila came out of the house with a 30-30 calibre rifle. He fired two shots. One struck his wife in the back and the other struck Mattson in the neck. Ollila then shot and killed his small daughter and fired two more bullets into the prostrate form of his wife and Mattson. He fired two shots at Keränen, who was fleeing. Both missed. Then Ollila ran into the house, removed his shoes and socks, placed the muzzle of the rifle at his neck, and pulled the trigger with his toe. He died almost instantly.

Coroner Charles F. McComb, Duluth, was probing the shooting today.

DAWES PLAN IS NOT INVOLVED IN GERMAN CRISIS

LONDON AGREEMENT ALREADY ENACTED, CLEAR OF ELECTION RESULTS

DISSOLUTION OF PARLIAMENT DOES NOT ENDANGER THE DAWES PLAN

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The dissolution of the Reichstag and the advent of a new Parliament in no way endangers the fulfillment by Germany of the London agreement on the Dawes reparation plan, Chancellor Marx told the Associated Press today.

Although the political complexion of the new Reichstag is wholly conjectural at this hour, the chancellor is convinced that the election, which has been set for December 7, will return a sufficient number of supporters of the Dawes plan and of the foreign and internal policies of the present government to insure the construction of a workable coalition government.

This government, Dr. Marx declared, would be automatically pledged to strict execution of the various laws sanctioned by the Reichstag on August 29, providing for honorable fulfillment of the London agreement. These laws are already operating, the chancellor remarked, adding that the present cabinet, which would continue in office, was possessed of complete constitutional authority to protect these laws and to vouchsafe their honorable execution.

The dissolution decree signed by President Ebert obviates any further session of the Reichstag and the sitting scheduled for Wednesday, therefore, has been cancelled.—Minneapolis Tribune.

VS. INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER CO.

GOVERNMENT FILES BRIEF TODAY IN THE PROCEEDINGS

ASKED CONSENT DECREE REVERSAL OR DISSOLUTION OF CORPORATION ORDERED

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Oct. 23.—The federal government today filed in federal court here a brief in proceedings against the International Harvester company, asking that the consent decree of 1918 be reversed or an effective dissolution of the corporation ordered.

The brief, prepared by Attorney-General Stone, declares that the 1918 decree, by which the company was to have disposed of the competitors it had absorbed, has failed to restore proper competitive conditions.

"Either the judges who try this case should order it to be reversed upon the ground that their decision was wholly erroneous and that there never was justification for any form of dissolution, or else an effective dissolution should be decreed," the brief states.

By virtue of an order of the attorney-general in 1915 when the suits first started, the judges of the United States circuit court of appeals sat as the United States district court of Minnesota today on hearing the brief. Judge Walter H. Sanborn, St. Paul presided. Judges Kinsborough, Stone of Kansas City, Robert E. Louis of Denver and William R. Kenyon of Fort Dodge, Ia., sat with him.

Attorney A. F. Myers, special assistant to attorney-general and Judge James A. Fowler, counsel for the government, presented the government brief. William S. Elliott, Chicago, Richard V. Lindberg of Newark, and Cordenius A. Severance of St. Paul comprised the counsel for the International Harvester company.

The consent decree provided that the company should be enjoined from having more than one representative in a given locality and that it should dispose of certain lines of harvesting machinery, plants and assets "unlawfully acquired by the acquisition of certain competing companies."

A test period which expired May 14, 1923, was allowed in which to judge the effect of the decree.

The brief sets forth "that the International Harvester company is a combination in restraint of trade and that a monopoly in violation of sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act is conclusively established by the decision and the decree of the court, which stands unreversed and unmodified."

ATTY.-GENERAL STONE COMMENTS ON SUIT

Washington, Oct. 23.—Commenting on the government suit against the International Harvester company, re-opening in St. Paul today, Attorney-General Stone said:

"Farming and agricultural interest through the country have a deep concern in this suit, as it is consigned not only to sustain the anti-trust laws of the country but also to afford proper protection to the farmers and landowners who are dependent upon agricultural machinery and implements obtainable at reasonable and equitable prices."

SENATE TEAPOT DOME INQUIRY UP IN COURT

VARIOUS ANGLES REVIEWED BY OPPOSING COUNSEL IN SUIT

GOVERNMENT AIMS TO BREAK DOHENY LEASES OF ELK HILL RESERVE

(By United Press)
Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 23.—Angles of the Senate Teapot Dome inquiry were reviewed by opposing counsel today at the resumption of the hearing of the government suit to break the E. L. Doheny leases on the California Elk Hills naval oil reserve.

Governmental attorneys said that they would trace the destination of the "little black bag," said to have contained $100,000 of Doheny's money when it left the bank of Blair & Company in New York.

Whether it made its way to Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, will be the object of questioning by Atlee Pomerene, one of the government counsel.

HILL IDENTIFIES THE FALL NOTE

Los Angeles, Oct. 23.—A note, attorneys say, from Secretary of the Interior A. B. Fall, given E. L. Doheny in exchange for $100,000 withdrawn from the Blair & Company bank, New York, was identified today at the hearing of the government suit contesting the Pan-American Oil Company's lease on the Elk Hills naval oil reserve.

The exhibit, exhibited at the senate oil reserve inquiry, was introduced by A. J. Hill, acting secretary of the public lands committee during the senate probe. Hill said he was positive the note was Fall's, although Fall's signature was missing.

GRAND JURY IS ORDERED TO PROBE CLOSING OF BANK

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Oct. 23.—A grand jury investigation of the closing of the Capital Trust & Savings Bank was ordered by Judge Charles Bechhoefer in district court. He ordered the jury to make the study to determine if rumors of law violations prior to the closing of the bank are true.

The Capital National Bank, sister institution, formerly headed by John R. Mitchell, now chairman of the Federal Reserve Board and Ninth District director, was absorbed by the Merchants National Bank after the failure of the Trust company.

FIVE MEN BURIED 220 FEET DEEP IN KENTUCKY MINE

RESCUE SQUADS AT WORK AFTER EXPLOSION SHOT FLAMES INTO AIR

FOUR MINERS SAVED SELVES BY CRAWLING THROUGH ABANDONED SHAFT

(By United Press)
Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 23.—Rescue squads today were attempting to reach five men entombed 220 feet below the surface of the earth in the workings of a mine of the Hart Coal corporation, which was wrecked late yesterday by a dust explosion.

Nine men were trapped by the blast, which occurred shortly after 250 workers had left the mine for the day, but four crawled out through an abandoned shaft. The explosion shot a flame 100 feet into the air.

The remaining five men at first were believed to have been killed outright. Later, however, one of the entombed miners shouted up a shaft that all had escaped injury.

OFFICIALS BELIEVE 3 MEN KILLED

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 23.—Mine officials believed today that three men were killed in the dust explosion which entombed 17 workers in the Hart Coal corporation's mine here late yesterday.

Fourteen men escaped through an abandoned entrance or are accounted for as safe in one of the shafts.

The three missing were at the level where the blast centered. Relatives of the missing miners and other workers formed a crowd of 1,000 persons about the mouth of the mine.

PERJURY CHARGE LAID TO BANDIT IN ST. PAUL CASE

CREAMERY ROBBER FIRST ARRESTED NEAR BAY LAKE

LAUD L. O'NEIL BEING TRIED IN ST. PAUL DISTRICT COURT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Oct. 23.—Sensational developments followed the charging of the jury in the case of Laud L. O'Neil in district court yesterday.

After the jurors had retired, Judge Charles Bechhoefer, before whom O'Neil and Claude Speakman were tried for the Crescent Creamery $1,300 robbery April 23, ordered the county attorney to proceed against Speakman on perjury charges.

Speakman emphatically denied connection with the robbery when he testified in his own case last week but yesterday took the stand as a witness for O'Neil and perjured himself by admitting he and a man named George Randall perpetrated the robbery and that O'Neil had nothing to do with the crime.

May Get New Term

"If criminals are permitted to come into court and testify in their own defense and then, in order to whitewash a friend, are allowed to take the stand and perjure themselves, it makes justice a huge joke," Judge Bechhoefer said, and he ordered Michael F. Kinkead, assistant county attorney, to proceed by information against Speakman.

It is believed Speakman may be arraigned in district court either late today or tomorrow and an additional sentence may be imposed on the term he now faces at Stillwater of from five to 40 years.

O'Neil has been on trial in district court the last three days on a charge of robbery in connection with the holding up April 23 of Stanley Godacz, employe of the Crescent Creamery Co., at 7th and Chestnut sts., when $1,300 in company funds were taken.

Claude Speakman, charged with the same crime, was convicted last Thursday and drew a 5 to 40 year sentence.

The case closed at noon yesterday. Speakman, who yesterday made a valiant effort to save O'Neil from a prison term by admitting his part in the robbery and absolving O'Neil, was on the stand again this morning. Asked if Jimmy Greaves had a hand in the robbery, Speakman said he knew of no connection Greaves had with the crime.

Yesterday Speakman named Geo. Randall as the man who aided him in robbing Mr. Godacz, and today he testified Randall has a police record and he has known him as a "yegg." At first Speakman refused to tell other names he has known Randall by, but when ordered by Judge Charles Bechhoefer to do so, said he was known as Bill Cummings.

"Was he also known by the name Laud L. O'Neil?" Michael F. Kinkead, assistant county attorney, asked.

Speakman answered "No."

Pleads for O'Neil

Claude Speakman, convicted last Thursday of the crime for which O'Neil is on trial, yesterday took the stand and denied that O'Neil was implicated. During his own trial, Speakman steadfastly denied that he himself was one of the two men who jumped on the running board of Stanley Godacz' automobile at 7th and Chestnut sts. April 23 and held up the driver and later robbed him of $1,300 in cash and checks.

Speakman offered an alibi, claiming he was at St. Louis Park the morning of the robbery.

Yesterday, however, in an effort to save O'Neil from the same fate he suffered—a penitentiary term up to

RAZORS, BOTTLES, WRENCHES, STONES, FIGURE IN ELECTION

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 23.—Razors, bottles, wrenches and stones figured in the British election campaign today.

Violence reminiscent of the days of the suffrage and Irish disturbances marred meetings in many constituencies. A 22-year-old Dulwich man was sent to the hospital in a critical condition with a razor gash from mouth to ear, obtained in a melee designed to break up a conservative meeting. In South London a man was knocked unconscious with a bottle in the hands of a heckler.

TOWN MARSHAL LOCKED IN ICE BOX BY BANDITS

BAND OF SIX WRECKED FIRST STATE BANK OF ARLINGTON

FIVE CHARGES OF DYNAMITE EXPLODED, ONLY $100 LOOT OBTAINED

(By United Press)
Arlington, Minn., Oct. 23.—The terrorist bandits who have been dynamiting bank vaults all over Minnesota this fall wrecked the First State Bank here early today but obtained less than $100 loot. They did more than $1,500 damage to the bank with five charges of dynamite.

Six bandits drove into town at 2 a. m. and captured the town marshal, Hugh McGovern. They took McGovern to the depot and locked him in a refrigerator car with Geo. McMahon, depot agent. Then they went to the telephone exchange and cut all telephone lines. Power lines feeding the city were cut, and with the exception of one light on the water tower the streets of the town were in darkness.

Five charges of dynamite failed to open the bank vault, so the bandits scraped up loose change from the cashier's cage, returned to the refrigerator car and released their prisoners, and fled westward from town in a touring car. Meantime they had fired a dozen or more shots at the residents who stuck their heads out of windows, when they heard the dynamite blasts. They also shot out the bank's burglar alarm.

Cashier A. J. Zimmerman said the loot would not total over $100. A. D. Buck, manager of the telephone office, said damage to wiring would amount to around $200.

49 years—Speakman testified that he was one of the robbers and that his accomplice was a man named George Randall. On cross-examination by Michael F. Kinkead, assistant county attorney, Speakman became slightly confused.

The witness stated he and Randall divided about $400, then took a Snelling-Minnehaha streetcar to Minneapolis and returned to St. Paul by bus.—St. Paul Daily News.

O'NEIL GETS SAME SENTENCE AS SPEAKMAN

St. Paul, Oct. 23.—Laud L. O'Neil, 30, son of a prominent St. Paul railroad man, was found guilty of first degree robbery by the district court jury yesterday and was sentenced by Judge Charles Bechhoefer to a term of from five to forty years at Stillwater.

O'Neil, branded by police and the county attorney as one of the worst criminals in the Northwest, was charged with complicity in the robbery of Stanley Godacz, employe of the Crescent Creamery company, on April 23.

Claude Speakman, arrested with O'Neil at Brainerd last August, was tried last week and convicted on the same charge and was given the same sentence by Judge Bechhoefer.

ONLY RADIO DISPATCH MANAGES TO BREAK SILENCE

Shanghai, Oct. 23.—Telephone and telegraph communication with Peking was severed today, according to a radio dispatch from Tientsin.

Severing of communication, according to the radio, followed the sudden return to the capital of the young Christian, Feng Yu Hsiang, leading his army after being part of the Peking forces in the north.

It is believed, the radio says, that the cutting of communication is designed to prevent the sending of messages between Shan Hai Kwan (the key point of the fight between the Peking troops and Marshal Chang) and Peking.

The message did not make clear whether Feng has revolted against the Peking government and General Wu.

NO TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION

London, Oct. 23.—Cable companies reported today that all telegraphic communication with Peking has been completely disrupted. They understand "local fighting" is the cause, but there is no confirmation of this.

WOMAN'S LETTER STIRRED UP WASHINGTON

MRS. MABEL WALKER WILLEBRANDT IS ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

SAYS SHE FINDS IT HARD WORK TO ENFORCE LAW BECAUSE MANY OFFICERS UNFIT

(By United Press)
Washington, Oct. 23.—A woman's letter served as the blast that stirred political Washington today from the White House to the Capitol in one of the most sensational prohibition incidents since enactment of the Volstead act.

On the basis of that letter President Coolidge stands accused by Samuel Undermyer, New York, lawyer, of having "used his power to prevent the people from learning the facts concerning alleged laxity in prohibition enforcement, which he said amounts to 'nationwide scandal'."

Attorney-General Stone also is charged by Undermyer with having suppressed until after election the letter "showing how this 'nationwide scandal' was still going on."

The letter, credited by Undermyer to Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney-general, in charge of prohibition enforcement, charges that she is unable to enforce the law because senators and politicians used their influence to keep unfit prohibition officials in office.

Woman Cattle Raiser
Phillip, S. D., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Joe Binder, of Sansarc, a small inland town near here, has made a record for grass-fed steers in this market. She raised and sold the three heaviest steers of which there is any record in this section. They weighed 1,690, 1,720 and 1,940 pounds.

St. Paul, Oct. 23.—Sensational developments followed the charging of the jury in the case of Laud L. O'Neil in district court yesterday.

After the jurors had retired, Judge Charles Bechoefer, before whom O'Neil and Claude Speakman were tried for the Crescent Creamery $1,300 robbery April 23, ordered the county attorney to proceed against Speakman on perjury charges.

Speakman emphatically denied connection with the robbery when he testified in his own case last week but yesterday took the stand as a witness for O'Neil and perjured himself by admitting he and a man named George Randall perpetrated the robbery and that O'Neil had nothing to do with the crime.

May Get New Term
"If criminals are permitted to come into court and testify in their own defense and then, in order to whitewash a friend, are allowed to take the stand and perjure themselves, it makes justice a huge joke," Judge Bechoefer said, and he ordered Michael F. Kinkead, assistant county attorney, to proceed by information against Speakman.

It is believed Speakman may be arraigned in district court either late today or tomorrow and an additional sentence may be imposed on the term he now faces at Stillwater of from five to 40 years.

O'Neil has been on trial in district court the last three days on a charge of robbery in connection with the holding up April 23 of Stanley Godacz, employee of the Crescent Creamery Co., at 7th and Chestnut sts., when $1,300 in company funds were taken.

Claude Speakman, charged with the same crime, was convicted last Thursday and drew a 5 to 40 year sentence.

The case closed at noon yesterday. Speakman, who yesterday made a valiant effort to save O'Neil from a prison term by admitting his part in the robbery and absolving O'Neil, was on the stand again this morning.

Asked if Jimmy Greaves had a hand in the robbery, Speakman said he knew of no connection Greaves had with the crime.

Yesterday Speakman named Geo. Randall as the man who aided him in robbing Mr. Godacz, and today he testified Randall has a police record and he has known him as a "yegg."

At first Speakman refused to tell other names he has known Randall by, but when ordered by Judge Charles Bechoefer to do so, said he was known as Bill Cummings.

"Was he also known by the name Laud L. O'Neil?" Michael F. Kinkead, assistant county attorney, asked.

Speakman answered "No."

Pleads for O'Neil
Claude Speakman, convicted last Thursday of the crime for which O'Neil is on trial, yesterday took the stand and denied that O'Neil was implicated.

During his own trial, Speakman steadfastly denied that he himself was one of the two men who jumped on the running board of Stanley Godacz' automobile at 7th and Chestnut sts. April 23 and held up the driver and later robbed him of $1,300 in cash and checks.

Speakman offered an alibi, claiming he was at St. Louis Park the morning of the robbery.

Yesterday, however, in an effort to save O'Neil from the same fate he suffered—a penitentiary term up to

RAZORS, BOTTLES,
WRENCHES, STONES,
London, Oct. 23.—Razors, bottles, wrenches and stones figured in the British election campaign today.

Violence reminiscent of the days of the suffrage and Irish disturbances marred meetings in many constituencies. A 22-year-old Dulwich man was sent to the hospital in a critical condition with a razor gash from mouth to ear, obtained in a melee designed to break up a conservative meeting.

In South London a man was knocked unconscious with a bottle in the hands of a heckler.

TOWN MARSHAL
LOCKED IN ICE
BOX BY BANDITSBAND OF SIX WRECKS FIRST
STATE BANK OF ARLING-
TONFIVE CHARGES OF DYNAMITE EX-
PLODED, ONLY $100 LOOT
OBTAINED(By United Press)
Arlington, Minn., Oct. 23.—The terrorist bandits who have been dynamiting bank vaults all over Minnesota this fall wrecked the First State Bank here early today but obtained less than $100 loot. They did more than $1,500 damage to the bank with five charges of dynamite.

Six bandits drove into town at 2 a. m. and captured the town marshal, Hugh McGovern. They took McGovern to the depot and locked him in a refrigerator car with Geo. McMahon, depot agent. Then they went to the telephone exchange and cut all telephone lines. Power lines feeding the city were cut, and with the exception of one light on the water tower the streets of the town were in darkness.

Five charges of dynamite failed to open the bank vault, so the bandits scraped up loose change from the cashier's cage, returned to the refrigerator car and released their prisoners, and fled westward from town in a touring car. Meantime they had fired a dozen or more shots at the residents who stuck their heads out of windows, when they heard the dynamite blasts. They also shot out the bank's burglar alarm.

Cashier A. J. Zimmerman said their loot would not total over $100. A. D. Buck, manager of the telephone office, said damage to wiring would amount to around $200.

40 years.—Speakman testified that he was one of the robbers and that his accomplice was a man named George Randall.

On cross-examination by Michael F. Kinkead, assistant county attorney, Speakman became slightly confused.

The witness stated he and Randall divided about $400, then took a Snelling-Minneha streetcar to Minneapolis and returned to St. Paul by bus.—St. Paul Daily News.

O'NEIL GETS SAME
SENTENCE AS SPEAKMAN

St. Paul, Oct. 23.—Laud L. O'Neil, 30, son of a prominent St. Paul railroad man, was found guilty of first degree robbery by the district court jury yesterday and was sentenced by Judge Charles Bechoefer to a term of from five to forty years at Stillwater.

O'Neil, branded by police and the county attorney as one of the worst criminals in the Northwest, was charged with complicity in the robbery of Stanley Godacz, employee of the Crescent Creamery company, on April 23.

Claude Speakman, arrested with O'Neil at Brainerd last August, was tried last week and convicted on the same charge and was given the same sentence by Judge Bechoefer.

MANAGES TO BREAK SILENCE

Shanghai, Oct. 23.—Telephone and telegraph communication with Peking was severed today, according to a radio dispatch from Tientsin.

Severing of communication, according to the radio, followed the sudden return to the capital of the young Christian, Feng Yu Hsiang, leading his army after being part of the Peking forces in the north.

It is believed, the radio says, that the cutting of communication is designed to prevent the sending of messages between Shan Hai Kwan (the key point of the fight between the Peking troops and Marshal Chang) and Peking.

The message did not make clear whether Feng has revolted against the Peking government and General Wu.

MANY OFFICERS UNFIT(By United Press)
Washington, Oct. 23.—A woman's letter served as the blast that stirred political Washington today from the White House to the Capitol in one of the most sensational prohibition incidents since enactment of the Volstead act.

On the basis of that letter President Coolidge stands accused by Samuel Untermyer, New York, lawyer, of having "used his power to prevent the people from learning the facts concerning alleged laxity in prohibition enforcement, which he said amounts to 'nationwide scandal'."

Attorney-General Stone also is charged by Untermyer with having suppressed until after election the letter "showing how this 'nationwide scandal' was still going on."

The letter, credited by Untermyer to Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney-general, in charge of prohibition enforcement, charges that she is unable to enforce the law because senators and politicians used their influence to keep unfit prohibition officials in office.

WORLD WAR VETERANS TO WORK FOR PEACE

FIDAC ASSOCIATION HAS AN AMBITIOUS PROGRAM

REPRESENTS EX-SERVICE MEN ORGANIZED IN NINE ALLIED COUNTRIES

(By United Press) Washington, Oct. 23.—Bent upon establishing lasting world peace and aiding the war-disabled, the Fidac, an inter-allied world war veterans' association, intends to push an ambitious program during the coming year.

The Fidac represents ex-service men organized in the nine allied countries, totalling ten million members. Col. Thomas W. Miller, U. S. Alien Property Custodian, was recently elected president of the organization and will leave for Paris soon to direct activities.

At a meeting in Paris five years ago of ex-service men from all allied countries, the Fidac was organized. America was represented at that meeting by the National Commander of the American Legion, F. W. Galbraith. Headquarters of the organization are in Paris, and its recent president was Deputy Charles Bertrand, member of the French Chamber of Deputies and a distinguished veteran of the French army.

Col. Miller, a former war veteran, is prominent in American Legion circles. He was chairman of the resolutions committee at the San Francisco convention in 1923. He is a former Congressman from Delaware and a graduate of Yale University. Miller enlisted in July, 1917, as a private in the army and was discharged as a lieutenant colonel in September, 1919. He served eleven months in France and received a citation for gallantry in action. Miller also is a member of the American Battle Monuments Commission, appointed to select suitable sites on European battlefields where memorials in honor of American troops killed in the war may be erected.

American delegates to the Fidac are selected by the American Legion. At the annual congress in London a short time ago women's auxiliaries of the allied veterans' associations were taken into membership.

"A section of the League of Nations devoted to ex-service men and their problems," said Col. Miller, "has been suggested, and the Fidac has been invited to the contact point between the League and the ex-service men. If this plan is carried out, we will have an 'unofficial' observer at Geneva. Plans are also being made to have representatives participate unofficially in the Arms Conference to be held in Europe next summer.

"While this is unofficial, it is an indication that the powers-that-be in the foreign countries realize that when they are making plans for a lasting peace they will receive the utmost of help from the men and women who suffered most directly from the privations of the recent war. Plans are also in force to work for the disabled men and women who served in the war and also to combat communists in Europe and in America."

BUILDING TO BE KEPT OPEN DESPITE COUNCIL REFUSAL OF APPROPRIATION

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—The Minneapolis Armory will be kept open during 1925 despite the failure of the city council to approve a tax levy for Armory maintenance purposes, Mayor Leach announced Tuesday.

"The Elks' lodge has come to the rescue and will stage a show at the Armory early in March, the proceeds of which will be turned over to the Armory maintenance fund, thereby enabling the Armory board to get state aid in the sum of $4,000," Mayor Leach said. "This, with rental receipts, will enable us to keep the Armory open next year."

The city council failed to make a tax levy for Armory purposes this year and the mayor solicited subscriptions for a maintenance fund which enabled the Armory board to get state aid and keep the building open this year.—Minneapolis Tribune

The Fidac represents ex-service men organized in the nine allied countries, totalling ten million members. Col. Thomas W. Miller, U. S. Alien Property Custodian, was recently elected president of the organization and will leave for Paris soon to direct activities.

At a meeting in Paris five years ago of ex-service men from all allied countries, the Fidac was organized. America was represented at that meeting by the National Commander of the American Legion, F. W. Galbraith. Headquarters of the organization are in Paris, and its recent president was Deputy Charles Bertrand, member of the French Chamber of Deputies and a distinguished veteran of the French army.

Col. Miller, a former war veteran, is prominent in American Legion circles. He was chairman of the resolutions committee at the San Francisco convention in 1923. He is a former Congressman from Delaware and a graduate of Yale University. Miller enlisted in July, 1917, as a private in the army and was discharged as a lieutenant colonel in September, 1919. He served eleven months in France and received a citation for gallantry in action. Miller also is a member of the American Battle Monuments Commission, appointed to select suitable sites on European battlefields where memorials in honor of American troops killed in the war may be erected.

American delegates to the Fidac are selected by the American Legion. At the annual congress in London a short time ago women's auxiliaries of the allied veterans' associations were taken into membership.

"A section of the League of Nations devoted to ex-service men and their problems," said Col. Miller, "has been suggested, and the Fidac has been invited to the contact point between the League and the ex-service men. If this plan is carried out, we will have an 'unofficial' observer at Geneva. Plans are also being made to have representatives participate unofficially in the Arms Conference to be held in Europe next summer.

"While this is unofficial, it is an indication that the powers-that-be in the foreign countries realize that when they are making plans for a lasting peace they will receive the utmost of help from the men and women who suffered most directly from the privations of the recent war. Plans are also in force to work for the disabled men and women who served in the war and also to combat communists in Europe and in America."

BUILDING TO BE KEPT OPEN DESPITE COUNCIL REFUSAL OF APPROPRIATION

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—The Minneapolis Armory will be kept open during 1925 despite the failure of the city council to approve a tax levy for Armory maintenance purposes, Mayor Leach announced Tuesday.

"The Elks' lodge has come to the rescue and will stage a show at the Armory early in March, the proceeds of which will be turned over to the Armory maintenance fund, thereby enabling the Armory board to get state aid in the sum of $4,000," Mayor Leach said. "This, with rental receipts, will enable us to keep the Armory open next year."

The city council failed to make a tax levy for Armory purposes this year and the mayor solicited subscriptions for a maintenance fund which enabled the Armory board to get state aid and keep the building open this year.—Minneapolis Tribune

REVIEWS ONE DAY SCHOOL FOR VOTERS

Mrs. Marclay Outlines Reasons For Parties, Necessity For Party Machinery

DISCUSSES CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Minneapolis Speaker Also Gave Address on Popular Government at Birthday Dinner

(Contributed)

The "One Day School for Voters" conducted by the League of Women Voters has passed into history, and it will be profitable to take stock of its benefits.

Before a small but attentive audience, Mrs. Marclay outlined the reason for parties, in a Democracy, the necessity for party machinery and the abuse of the same. In enlarging upon the latter point, she gave a brief review of Frank Kent's "Great Game of Politics" which the League is using as a text book in its study of political conditions in this country as they really are—instead of as idealists would like to paint them. Feeling that Mr. Kent's book, if widely read, might be as effective in correcting abuses in state and national politics as Viscount Bryce's "American Commonwealth" was in calling attention to the rank corruption in our city politics, the League has had a paper edition of Mr. Kent's book published, which sells for fifty cents. The original edition sold for two dollars and fifty cents. Mrs. Marclay said the moral of Mr. Kent's exposition was that the people should control the party machinery. Its management should not be left to irresponsible party bosses. She made it clear that, in order to obtain popular control, the people must vote at the primaries, as in no other way can they select men to serve them who will put the welfare of the people above that of the party.

Mrs. Marclay discussed the issues in the present campaign in a calm, impartial, didactic manner that could not offend the most ardent partisan. She used the speeches of the candidates themselves as her source material, all of which she clipped from the Twin City papers. This fact effectively answers the objection that one can get only one side of a question from a partisan newspaper. Mrs. Marclay says that while it is true that the editorial matter is strictly partisan, the text of political speeches is given space in all of our best city papers.

She accounted for the evasive character of party platforms as follows. Each of the major parties is made up of people who have varying and often conflicting interests. There is a progressive and a reactionary group in both of these parties and, in order to hold the vote of all these conflicting interests, there must be compromise and evasion of the issues upon which these two groups are sharply divided. Mrs. Marclay made it clear that the parties did not make the issues, that these were forced upon the party by public opinion. A new party was formed whenever existing parties refused to take up an issue that the people demanded. It was in this way that the Republican party was formed. It was born an anti-slavery party.

Whether or not the Farmer-Labor party represents a new era in our industrial life, and is the expression of a demand for greater industrial freedom remains to be seen. Only time will tell.

Mrs. Marclay stated that the League of Women Voters presented their World Court and public welfare planks to the platform committees of each of the parties and all of them were accepted either in substance or in principle, and that this was the only women's organization that received such recognition.

At the Birthday Dinner, at the Episcopal church parlors, Mrs. Marclay gave a very thoughtful address on popular government and the necessity of making it government by the people instead of by a small minority. "The selfishness of the few is more dangerous than the ignorance of the many," said the speaker. Every time the franchise has been extended to a new group of citizens, Conservatives have been fearful of the consequences. But that great statesman whose life study was Democracy, Viscount Bryce, tells us that at every step popular control has resulted in better government.

Mrs. Marclay contrasted the simplicity of the government of our forefathers with the complexity of present day government by graphically contrasting the industries of the home in those days, with the present home. She said that flax was grown, spun and manufactured into cloth in the farm home. Grain was ground at a near-by mill on shares. Socks were knitted and shoes were made at home, while today all of these industries are out from under the control of the home, hence they must be controlled by government. To press this point home, she quoted Sec'y. Hoover: "When we deal with problems of commerce, of transportation and of farms, there must be in the background of each one's mind the fact that we are not dealing with mechanical things; we are dealing with problems of men, women and children, and therein lies the heart of democracy." Mrs. Marclay said that the chief function of government in the early days was police protection, whereas today, it regulates industry whether in the home or in the work-shop and vitally affects the lives of each and every one of us. Therefore, we cannot afford to leave the control of government to a small minority of the people.

Mrs. Marclay declared that a popular vote is always a conservative vote. In Oregon, sixty-four laws have been referred to the people and of those not one has taken away property rights from either individuals or corporations. Experience has proved the truth of Maeterlinck's statement that: "At every crossway on the road to the future, humanity has placed against each of us, ten thousand men to guard the past. Let us have no fear that the fairest towers of former days will be insufficiently defended."

The speaker said that as a matter of fact, our real radicals are our thinkers who out-run their generation in their political philosophy.

In speaking of public opinion as the real power in popular government, Mrs. Marclay gave an interesting analysis of how this was formed. She said that Europeans made a lot of fun of Americans because they belonged to so many organizations. But, as a matter of fact, it was through these organizations that public opinion was formed and became crystallized. All these various organizations are studying problems that affect the welfare of their members, or of much larger groups. They have experts address them at their conventions and reports of these addresses are carried back to clubs, lodges, or societies, and gradually opinion becomes sufficiently strong on the subject of some particular wrong that should be righted to force it into the arena of politics.

A further value of such organizations, the speaker declared, is the training in co-operation. It teaches people to pull together, and self-government is team work transferred to the realm of politics.

Mrs. Marclay closed with a plea to consider voting not only a duty but a privilege. Voting is the trench warfare of politics, she said. We would not think of being slackers in war time! A person who refuses to vote for his country should be held in the same ignominy as one who refuses to fight for his country.

But voting should be looked upon as a privilege. One that has been bought with the blood of martyrs. We should teach children in the schools to associate voting with the ancient struggle for human rights, so that when they attain majority they will look upon the suffrage as a dearly bought privilege. Only by making the voting place a shrine can we make Democracy secure. And Democracy is the last chance of humanity.

There was a delightful mingling of the things that satisfy the appetite and the "inner man" at the Birthday dinner for young voters. All of the tables were decorated with candles and freshly picked garden flowers, while the Birthday table had special decorations besides the birthday cake with twenty-one candles. This table was surrounded with eager young faces, and the possessor of one of the most attractive acted as chairman. Brave, although confessedly shaking at the knees, Miss Genevieve Flannagan introduced her speakers with appropriate personal remarks. She said that the first speaker needed no introduction, as she had taught most of the girls at the Birthday table, and had given them their first lessons in patriotism.

Miss Barrett responded in her own inimitable, witty manner. She contrasted their coming of age with her own. She was compelled to watch six brothers march proudly to the polls, while she and her mother, who gave far more thought and attention to public questions, stayed at home and fumed at this wrong which had now been righted. "After we women won the war" (loud applause) said Miss Barrett, "they didn't dare keep us from voting any longer."

Miss Barrett's speech abounded in humor and delightful reminiscence but, taken out of its setting and transferred to cold type, it would lose much of its charm.

Two solos by Miss Cora Rickard, with a response to a very insistent encore, added a great deal to the pleasure of this festive occasion. Mrs. Walter F. Wieland's skillful work as accompanist also added much to the pleasure of Miss Rickard's singing. Few, if any, knew that Mrs. Wieland played the accompaniment of the encore at sight.

The League of Women Voters feels very grateful to all those who gave so freely of their time and their talents to make this Birthday Dinner to young voters such a delightful affair.

EFFORTS MADE TO CURE LEPROSY

Few people in this country other than physicians ever see a case of leprosy although it is estimated that between five hundred and one thousand lepers are still at large in the United States. Except the disease be in its last stages the average person would never recognize it. Lepers have been known to live in communities for years before being recognized as such. Often these persons are discovered to be lepers when applying for treatment of some other condition.

Recently three lepers have been discharged from the National Leprosarium at Carville, Louisiana as having now no manifestations of the disease. To all intents and purposes, they have been cured although the doctors merely certify that the disease has been arrested and that these persons are no longer a menace to the public health.

The treatment at Carville, while by no means wholly confined to the use of special preparations of chaulmoogra oil, depends very materially on these preparations for its efficacy, or in other words, their use is regarded as an important adjunct of the treatment.

The accommodations for lepers at Carville have never been sufficient to take care of all the lepers who apply. At present there are 211 beds, all of which are filled, but there will soon be facilities to care for a total of 415 lepers and it is believed that the new buildings will be rapidly filled as there is a large waiting list.

The timely provision for the isolation and treatment of these unfortunate victims of this terrible disease will, no doubt, diminish the spread of leprosy in the United States a matter that is already giving great concern to both National and State health officers.

PRAISES ACTION OF BRAINERD MAN

John A. Anderson, of Pillager, Describes Accident And Aid Offered Thereafter

DAMAGED CAR TOWED IN

Anderson's Car Repaired Promptly and Brainerd Man Proves Himself a Perfect Gentleman
John A. Anderson, of Pillager, one of the parties whose car was damaged in a collision on Sunday evening, just west of Brainerd, signifies his appreciation of the courtesy shown by the other party to the accident, and tells of the details of the collision in a letter to the Dispatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, with their baby James, had paid a visit to the Northwestern hospital and were homeward bound toward Pillager.

The other car, containing Brainerd people whose names could not be ascertained, was coming toward Brainerd, without headlights and following close behind another automobile.

The collision occurred when a turnout was made to pass an approaching car. Mr. Anderson could not see the Brainerd car, since it had no lights and was following another machine. None of the cars was speeding, he says.

The Brainerd man proved himself a perfect gentleman, according to Mr. Anderson. He ordered a service truck from one of the Brainerd garages and had the Anderson car towed in and stood by while the necessary repairs were made, and the machine put in good condition again, shouldering the bill for the repairs, and taking all of the blame for the accident.

Mr. Anderson feels that such courtesy should not go unrewarded, and regrets that the name of the Brainerd resident is unknown. He is also very glad that no one was injured in the collision.

Presbyterian Supper
Citizens are asked not to forget the Presbyterian ladies aid supper on Saturday, October 25th, in the E. O. Webb building, 610 Front street, from 5 until 8 o'clock.

The menu will consist of roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, baked beans, light and dark bread, jelly, pickles, cake and coffee.

W. C. T. U. Meeting
The W. C. T. U. will meet at 8 o'clock on Friday afternoon, October 24 at the Y. M. C. A. and continue their study of citizenship.

A person who refuses to vote for his country should be held in the same ignominy as one who refuses to fight for his country.

But voting should be looked upon as a privilege. One that has been bought with the blood of martyrs. We should teach children in the schools to associate voting with the ancient struggle for human rights, so that when they attain majority they will look upon the suffrage as a dearly bought privilege. Only by making the voting place a shrine can we make Democracy secure. And Democracy is the last chance of humanity.

There was a delightful mingling of the things that satisfy the appetite and the "inner man" at the Birthday dinner for young voters. All of the tables were decorated with candles and freshly picked garden flowers, while the Birthday table had special decorations besides the birthday cake with twenty-one candles. This table was surrounded with eager young faces, and the possessor of one of the most attractive acted as chairman. Brave, although confessedly shaking at the knees, Miss Genevieve Flannagan introduced her speakers with appropriate personal remarks. She said that the first speaker needed no introduction, as she had taught most of the girls at the Birthday table, and had given them their first lessons in patriotism.

Miss Barrett responded in her own inimitable, witty manner. She contrasted their coming of age with her own. She was compelled to watch six brothers march proudly to the polls, while she and her mother, who gave far more thought and attention to public questions, stayed at home and fumed at this wrong which had now been righted. "After we women won the war" (loud applause) said Miss Barrett, "they didn't dare keep us from voting any longer."

Miss Barrett's speech abounded in humor and delightful reminiscence but, taken out of its setting and transferred to cold type, it would lose much of its charm.

Two solos by Miss Cora Rickard, with a response to a very insistent encore, added a great deal to the pleasure of this festive occasion. Mrs. Walter F. Wieland's skillful work as accompanist also added much to the pleasure of Miss Rickard's singing. Few, if any, knew that Mrs. Wieland played the accompaniment of the encore at sight.

The League of Women Voters feels very grateful to all those who gave so freely of their time and their talents to make this Birthday Dinner to young voters such a delightful affair.

EFFORTS MADE TO CURE LEPROSY

Few people in this country other than physicians ever see a case of leprosy although it is estimated that between five hundred and one thousand lepers are still at large in the United States. Except the disease be in its last stages the average person would never recognize it. Lepers have been known to live in communities for years before being recognized as such. Often these persons are discovered to be lepers when applying for treatment of some other condition.

Recently three lepers have been discharged from the National Leprosarium at Carville, Louisiana as having now no manifestations of the disease. To all intents and purposes, they have been cured although the doctors merely certify that the disease has been arrested and that these persons are no longer a menace to the public health.

The treatment at Carville, while by no means wholly confined to the use of special preparations of chaulmoogra oil, depends very materially on these preparations for its efficacy, or in other words, their use is regarded as an important adjunct of the treatment.

The accommodations for lepers at Carville have never been sufficient to take care of all the lepers who apply. At present there are 211 beds, all of which are filled, but there will soon be facilities to care for a total of 415 lepers and it is believed that the new buildings will be rapidly filled as there is a large waiting list.

The timely provision for the isolation and treatment of these unfortunate victims of this terrible disease will, no doubt, diminish the spread of leprosy in the United States a matter that is already giving great concern to both National and State health officers.

PRAISES ACTION OF BRAINERD MAN

John A. Anderson, of Pillager, Describes Accident And Aid Offered Thereafter

DAMAGED CAR TOWED IN

Anderson's Car Repaired Promptly and Brainerd Man Proves Himself a Perfect Gentleman

John A. Anderson, of Pillager, one of the parties whose car was damaged in a collision on Sunday evening, just west of Brainerd, signifies his appreciation of the courtesy shown by the other party to the accident, and tells of the details of the collision in a letter to the Dispatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, with their baby James, had paid a visit to the Northwestern hospital and were homeward bound toward Pillager.

The other car, containing Brainerd people whose names could not be ascertained, was coming toward Brainerd, without headlights and following close behind another automobile.

The collision occurred when a turnout was made to pass an approaching car. Mr. Anderson could not see the Brainerd car, since it had no lights and was following another machine. None of the cars was speeding, he says.

The Brainerd man proved himself a perfect gentleman, according to Mr. Anderson. He ordered a service truck from one of the Brainerd garages and had the Anderson car towed in and stood by while the necessary repairs were made, and the machine put in good condition again, shouldering the bill for the repairs, and taking all of the blame for the accident.

Mr. Anderson feels that such courtesy should not go unrewarded, and regrets that the name of the Brainerd resident is unknown. He is also very glad that no one was injured in the collision.

Presbyterian Supper

PROTECTS AMERICAN FARM

DEMOCRATS argue that it is an economic crime to protect the American beet-sugar industry with a tariff when sugar might be bought from Cuba much cheaper than it can be produced at home. The argument carried to its natural conclusion means that the beet-sugar industry in the United States, of great importance to most of the western states, should be allowed to die.

If this is true of the beet growing industry, it is just as true of every other agricultural crop. In the Argentine beef can be grown and exported for less than the cost of growing it in the United States. The breaking of the tariff wall of protection, which the Democrats intend, would be disaster to the American cattle grower. In Canada and in the Argentine wheat can be grown for a fraction of what it costs the American wheat grower to produce a crop. Drop the tariff bars, and what would happen to the American wheat farmer?

New Zealand and Australia can produce and export wool and mutton for less than they can be produced by the American farmer. Break down the protective tariff, and what happens to our sheep man?

The same thing is true of butter, of citrus fruits, of many other agricultural products. Congressman Harold Knutson now has a bill before Congress to protect the Minnesota dairymen from European competition. Danish butter, it was found, by reason of exchange fluctuations, can undersell the home product in New York markets and still yield a considerable profit for the Danish competitor. The Knutson bill aims to raise the tariff on butter and thus protect the Minnesota farmer and dairymen from other states.

For the protection of the American farmer, those things that he buys are admitted to the country free of duty, while those things he raises and sells are not forced into competition with cheap farm products from other lands because the Republican tariff prevents it. The Fordney-McCumber tariff law, now in effect, imposes no duty on agricultural implements, binder twine, many kinds of fertilizers, building materials, leather products, coal and other farming necessities.

The Republican tariff policy operates directly to protect America's basic industry—agriculture. Remove it, and in the wake of this move would follow economic disaster and stark ruin for the American farmer.

STEAM LOST IN WHISTLING

We are all familiar with Abraham Lincoln's story of the little steamboat which lost all power to proceed up-stream when it blew its whistle.

Scientific inquiry has now been made and results tabulated that $5,000,000 is wasted annually in steam used in whistling on American railways. To cut down this expense, experts now advocate the reduction in size of all locomotive whistles, the heightening of their tone to a shrill squeak and placing them in front of the locomotive.

A SYMPATHETIC MARKET

ACCORDING to the government reports in "Crops and Markets" of recent date, prices of hogs, lard and margarine in Germany continue to rise in sympathy with the upward trend in the United States, according to cables from the office of the American agricultural commissioner in Berlin.

The improvement in hog prices is particularly noticeable and will be welcomed by German farmers, as the potato crop is good, insuring large domestic supplies of feed.

THE Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway would open the markets of the world to the west and middle west sections of the United States and offer an unprecedented chance to negotiate trade at considerably reduced expense. If we mean business, says the Canton, Ohio, News, the thing to do is to get busy and organize in all states and sections of states for the purpose.

THE League of Women Voters has made a remarkable record in St. Paul and other places in registering voters. In St. Paul additional registration secured amounted to 15,000 and in Minneapolis 30,000. The women were the first in the field to stir up the voters and get them to register and to vote, later being joined by the American Legion and other organizations.

In Arthur Synstegard, St. Paul has a sort of Red Grange when it comes to police work. On his first night on duty as a policeman he arrested 24 men, being 13 drunks, eight vagrants and three for obstructing sidewalks. Next night he made six arrests, three drunks and three for obstructing the street.

AFTER Little Falls was bragging in advance of all the publicity it was to get from the completion of the N. P. block signal system through the town, it did not land in the movies. Brainerd, on the other hand, had its "Better Sires Day" flashed from coast to coast by Kinograms news.

If you are to be away from home on election day, November 4, make arrangements now with County Auditor C. W. Mahlum. You can take advantage of the Absent Voter law and still do your duty as a citizen of the United States.

REPORTS have been received by the Dispatch of boys driving cars at night at such high rate of speed as to endanger cars they met. One instance is reported of a car just shaving by a bus, the latter loaded with passengers.

OTHER PEOPLES' OPINIONS

Is Against Both Proposed Sites

Editor Brainerd Dispatch:

As for buying any more property for school purposes, for instance, Block 82, thus taking it off the tax rolls, it seems to me is a waste of public money.

The Brainerd School District owns enough property now, in fact, it owns more property than any school district in the state of its size, and perhaps, twice its size. It owns a block in Northeast Brainerd, a block on the north side, a block in Southeast Brainerd, and nearly two blocks on the south side. It owns quite a lot of property in the Mill district in Northeast Brainerd and also in West Brainerd. Why buy more and place added burden on remaining taxable property in the city?

It is about time the taxpayers and citizens put a stop to this kind of business. It does not make so much difference to the person who owns a number of pieces of property which he rents out but it does to the fellow who pays the rent and those who simply own their own homes. Very soon it will be a question of whether they own them or not, by the size of the tax they will pay to live in them.

If there is a real determination to put this new High School across, let the school board utilize some of the property the district now owns. It is too bad the children can not walk a couple of blocks farther to school one way or the other. There is no use for two graded schools on the south side of the size of the Washington and Lincoln schools.

Vote against both sites.
A CITIZEN AND TAXPAYER.

Against Grouping Schools

Editor:

The discussions in your paper on the site for the proposed new high school have been very interesting and instructive. There is one thing I would like to call attention to, and that is, if the new high school was built on the South Sixth street site there would be three school buildings within three blocks, about 64 class rooms, all bunched up in a small space. Would that be the right thing to do? Everybody should vote "yes" on the First question.

Several of the widows and their families have come from the far west provinces.

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists call it "Joint-Ease" because it's for Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaky Joints Only.

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or some thing else.

Of course it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lambo, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, crick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it is only a few seconds' rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

All druggists dispense it daily for about 50 cents a tube.

Always remember, when Joint-Ease gets in, joint agony gets out—quick.

Hudson Can't Pay for St. Paul Cops' Services

"We are very sorry, but we have no funds with which to pay for the gas used and toll bridge fees of your men."

—County Attorney, Hudson, Wis.

"And still the small towns complain about the co-operation they receive from the St. Paul police department."

—Chief Ed Murnane.
The first quotation is from a letter from the county attorney at Hudson, Wis., refusing to pay expenses of detectives who went to that town to investigate a safe robbery and identified through finger prints the robber.

The second was made by Chief Ed Murnane as he read the letter. The Hudson robbery was Sept. 23. Finger prints, police say, showed it was committed by the Piggly Wiggly bandit gang, as prints from the fingers of Robert Perry, Jr., were found on the safe.—St. Paul Daily News.

Daring Riding in "The Silent Stranger"

Fred Thomson's display of horsemanship in "The Silent Stranger," showing at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Friday, is nothing short of remarkable.

Thomson's rescue of a baby girl from a buckboard runaway is not only exciting and courageous, but incorporates three daring stunts in one. He dashes into the path of the onrushing horses, grabs the bridle of one horse and swings himself between the team, climaxing this bit of daring by standing on the galloping horses to furnish scenes for some very thrilling Roman riding.

Hazel Keener plays the feminine lead opposite Thomson. Miss Keener is not only an actress of exceptional ability, but a noted beauty as well.

having won many prizes in beauty contests, among these the Chicago Tribune national contest. Others in the cast are: George Williams, Richard Headrick, Frank Hagney, Horace Carpenter and "Silver King," Thomson's wonder horse.

First Negri Film of Famous Forty "Lily of the Dust," which will be shown at the New Park tonight and Friday, is the first of the Famous Forty Paramount pictures starring Pola Negri to be shown in Brainerd. It's Miss Negri's first of this big group of pictures, to be followed by "Forbidden Paradise" and "A Woman Scorned," also booked for showing at the New Park.

"Lily of the Dust," written for the screen by Paul Bern, is based on the novel, "The Song of Songs." It's a tense drama of life and love with the charming continental star in her greatest acting role. Critics acclaimed the legitimate play, "The Song of Songs," a veritable sensation. When you see the screen version of the story you'll do the same thing.

BIG PRODUCTIONS AT NEW PARK

Cream of Pictures Booked For Showing This Season, Says Manager
George Irwin

CAPTAIN BLOOD, SEA HAWK
D. W. Griffith's "America" Booked Said to be as Big as "Birth of a Nation"

The management of the New Park theatre announces that they have bought the entire output of Paramount, First National, and Warner Brothers, the three leading picture producers of the United States, for showing this season, also a number of the bigger productions from other companies. The following list of pictures will be shown at the New Park in the near future:

Among the first is the "Sea Hawk" starring Milton Sills and Enid Bennett. This is one of the biggest of this or any year. This picture is now showing at the Garrick theatre, Minneapolis, where it has been running for three weeks breaking all attendance records.

"Captain Blood" with Warren Kerrigan. This story recently ran in the Brainerd Daily Dispatch. You have read the story and you surely will want to see the picture.

Harold Lloyd in "Hot Water." D. W. Griffith's "America" said to be as big as "The Birth of a Nation." "Abraham Lincoln," a big super-special that every American should see.

Norma Talmadge in "Secrets." Rudolph Valentino in "A Sainted Devil." Rudy is himself again in this picture, the good bad man with slouched hat, high boots, striped shirt, wide trousers, knife and loaded riding whip, making love to all the girls.

"The Ten Commandments," one of the greatest pictures ever made.

"Merton of the Movies" with Glen Hunter and Viola Dana.

"Peter Pan" from the immortal story by J. M. Barrie.

"North of 36" with Jack Holt, Lois Wilson, Ernest Torrence and Noah Beery.

Gloria Swanson in "Her Love Story."

Sylvia Breamer, Lou Cody, and Bessie Love in "The Woman on the Jury." This picture created a sensation while showing at the State theatre, Minneapolis.

Richard Dix and Bebe Daniels in "Sinners in Heaven."

Coleen Moore in the "Perfect Flapper," said to be even better than "Flaming Youth."

"Uninvited Guest," a picture in natural colors.

Raymond Navarro and Alice Terry in the "Arab."

Zane Grey's "The Border Legion" with Antonio Moreno and Helen Chadwick.

"Those Who Dance" with Blanche Sweet and Warner Baxter.

Tom Moore and Laurette Taylor in "One Night in Rome."

In addition to these great pictures the Auger Bros. stock company will open a week's engagement on Monday, October 27 with a different play every night, also matinee on Saturday and Sunday. These people carry their own six piece orchestra and a company of fourteen people and have been recommended very highly by theatre managers in towns where they have played.

With the above list of pictures lined up for showing the New Park is surely living up to their slogan "The Pick of the Pictures."

"Ivory" From Trees

In Colombia, Peru, Ecuador and Brazil, "Ivory" grows on trees. It is gathered in the form of hard, white, fine-grained, oval nuts, about the size of a small potato, which drop from the wild tagua, or ivory nut palm. When dried, vegetable ivory looks like real ivory from elephant tusks.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthos-Sulphur says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation. Menthos-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles' Menthos-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv't.

There should be a fine for buying a cheap coat when good coats are so cheap

If a poorly made O'coat cost $25 to $30 less than a good quality garment and if you were unable to afford the difference—we might say—"Fine, go ahead."

But when the cheap shoddy article is within a $3 to $5 stone's throw of the fine garment—then reckless spending is as dangerous as reckless driving.

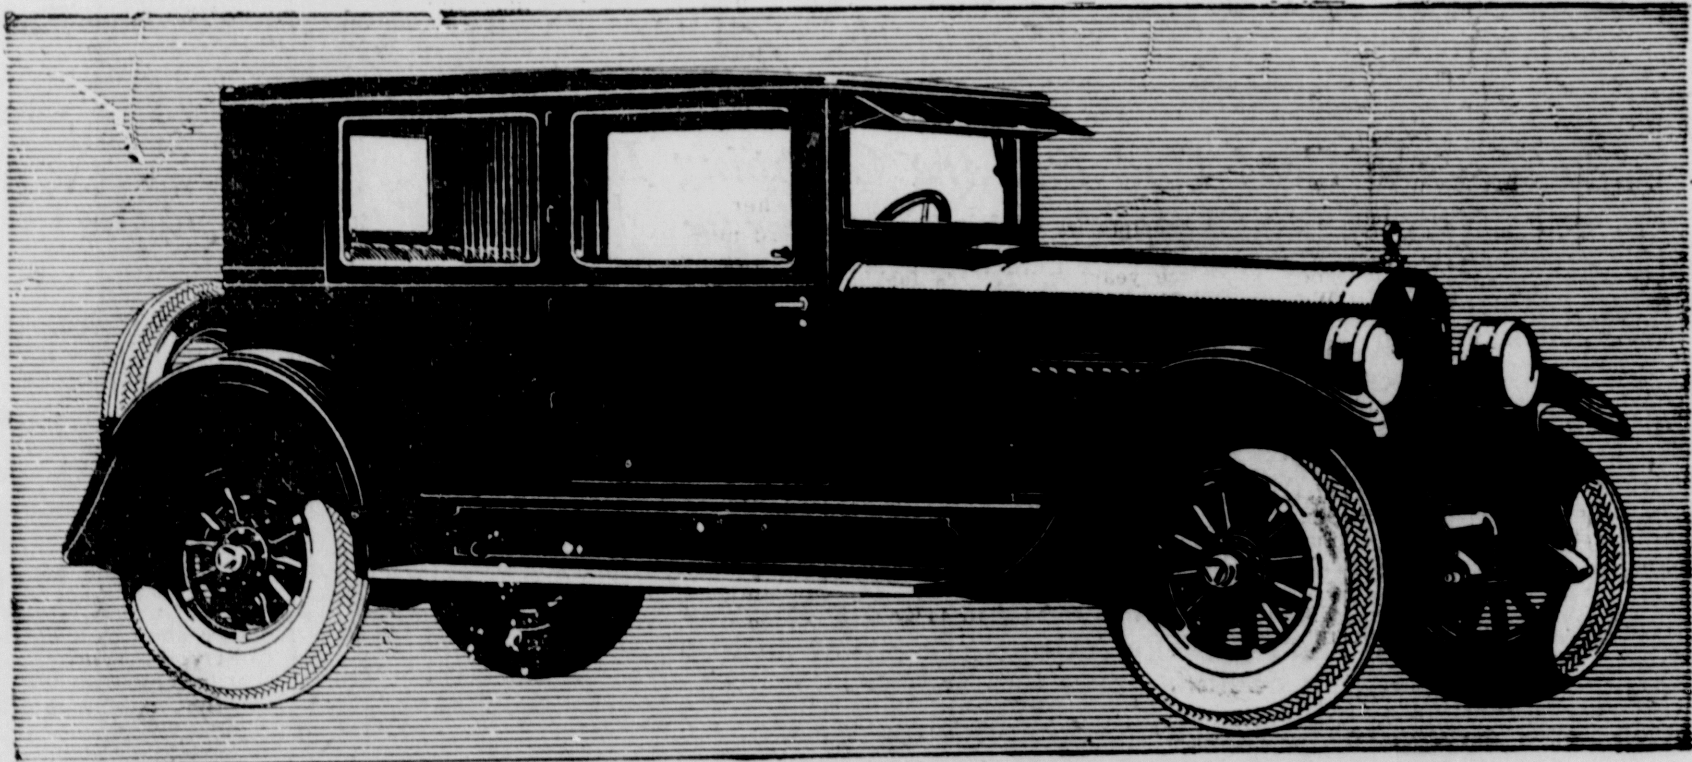

In this stock are O'coats that are as fine as it is possible to make—at prices that make it almost impossible for cheap coats to do business.

Oregon City Overcoats.....$30.00 to $50.00
Leather Vests.....$ 9.00 to $20.00
New Mufflers.....$ .75 to $ 4.00
Fall Neckwear.....$ .50 to $ 2.00
Belts.....$ .50 to $ 1.50

At Exactly Open Car Cost

You pay exactly open car cost for the all-year comforts of the Coach. Hudson alone can build it. As the largest builder of 6-cylinder closed cars in the world, Hudson exclusively holds the advantages to produce this car and this price.

It creates the one important buying issue today. For no one who knows closed car comforts will be satisfied with an open car, with one-season utility, and diminishing resale value.

That is why the Coach outsells all rivals. Its leadership is not even challenged. Everyone knows it provides highest closed car value. Hudson invented the Coach and its development and experience make its value exclusive.

And even more important in your permanent enjoyment of the Coach, is the famous Super-Six chassis with performance distinction and long lasting reliability not excelled by any car regardless of cost.

BIG PRODUCTIONS AT NEW PARK

Cream of Pictures Booked For Showing This Season, Says Manager
George Irwin

CAPTAIN BLOOD, SEA HAWK

D. W. Griffith's "America" Booked Said to be as Big as "Birth of a Nation"

The management of the New Park theatre announces that they have bought the entire output of Paramount, First National, and Warner Brothers, the three leading picture producers of the United States, for showing this season, also a number of the bigger productions from other companies. The following list of pictures will be shown at the New Park in the near future:

Among the first is the "Sea Hawk" starring Milton Sills and Enid Bennett. This is one of the biggest of this or any year. This picture is now showing at the Garrick theatre, Minneapolis, where it has been running for three weeks breaking all attendance records.

"Captain Blood" with Warren Kerrigan. This story recently ran in the Brainerd Daily Dispatch. You have read the story and you surely will want to see the picture.

Harold Lloyd in "Hot Water." D. W. Griffith's "America" said to be as big as "The Birth of a Nation." "Abraham Lincoln," a big super-special that every American should see.

Norma Talmadge in "Secrets." Rudolph Valentino in "A Sainted Devil." Rudy is himself again in this picture, the good bad man with slouched hat, high boots, striped shirt, wide trousers, knife and loaded riding whip, making love to all the girls.

"The Ten Commandments," one of the greatest pictures ever made.

"Merton of the Movies" with Glen Hunter and Viola Dana.

"Peter Pan" from the immortal story by J. M. Barrie.

"North of 36" with Jack Holt, Lois Wilson, Ernest Torrence and Noah Beery.

Gloria Swanson in "Her Love Story."

Sylvia Breamer, Lou Cody, and Bessie Love in "The Woman on the Jury." This picture created a sensation while showing at the State theatre, Minneapolis.

Richard Dix and Bebe Daniels in "Sinners in Heaven."

Coleen Moore in the "Perfect Flapper," said to be even better than "Flaming Youth."

"Uninvited Guest," a picture in natural colors.

Raymon Navarro and Alice Terry in the "Arab."

Zane Grey's "The Border Legion" with Antonio Moreno and Helen Chadwick.

"Those Who Dance" with Blanche Sweet and Warner Baxter.

Tom Moore and Laurette Taylor in "One Night in Rome."

In addition to these great pictures the Aulger Bros. stock company will open a week's engagement on Monday, October 27 with a different play every night, also matinee on Saturday and Sunday. These people carry their own six piece orchestra and a company of fourteen people and have been recommended very highly by theatre managers in towns where they have played.

With the above list of pictures lined up for showing the New Park is surely living up to their slogan "The Pick of the Pictures."

"Ivory" From Trees

In Colombia, Peru, Ecuador and Brazil, "Ivory" grows on trees. It is gathered in the form of hard, white, fine-grained, oval nuts, about the size of a small potato, which drop from the wild tagua, or ivory-nut palm. When dried, vegetable ivory looks like real ivory from elephant tusks.

HEALING CREAM IS QUICK RELIEF FOR HEAD COLDS

Colds and catarrh yield like magic to soothing, healing antiseptic cream that penetrates through every air passage and relieves swollen, inflamed membranes of nose and throat. Your clogged nostrils open right up and you can breathe freely. Hawking and snuffling stop. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist. Apply a little in the nostrils and get instant relief. Millions endorse this remedy known for more than fifty years.

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv't.

GIRL CHARGES 2 WITH ASSAULT

Claims Being Promised Car Ride to Work and Then Driven on Merrifield Road

TELLS HER STORY ON STAND

Alleges She Fought Off Men, But Both Struck Her With Their Fists

In municipal court Thursday Robert T. Gustafson was given a preliminary examination on a statutory charge.

The girl in the case was questioned, and gave a very detailed account of an assault made upon her by two men whom she stated took her in their Ford car about a mile north of the paper mill on the Merrifield road.

She stated that she was coming downtown from her rooming place on North Tenth street, about 9:30 o'clock Monday evening, October 13th, when some man in a Ford that was parked in front of the Wicklund store, corner of Main and North Ninth streets, called her by name and asked her to get into the car, saying that he would take her down town, where she is employed nights in one of the restaurants.

It was dark and she could not see who the man in the automobile was, but thought that she must know him, since he called her by her first name. The side curtains were on the car hiding the back seat where the man was sitting. After she accepted the invitation she found that the man was a stranger to her, but he promised to take her to work as soon as his companion came from the store, where he was making a purchase.

The second man came out in about five minutes, and got into the front seat of the car, acting as driver. Instead of driving downtown, he swung north to Kingwood street, according to the girl's testimony, and out through Northeast Brainerd and a mile beyond the paper mill, where the car was driven into a deserted side road and stopped.

The two men then made their advances, according to the girl, and because she fought them off, both men struck her with their fists about the face and neck several times. They then dragged her from the car and threw her to the ground, one holding her while the other made his improper advancements, and vice versa, said the girl in her testimony.

Attorney C. A. Ryan had not completed his cross examination of the girl at noon, and a recess was taken until 1:30 o'clock.

The case was continued at one-thirty o'clock this afternoon, the cross examination still being in progress as the Dispatch goes to press.

The girl in her testimony identified Mr. Gustafson as being the driver of the Ford car, but on cross examination stated that with the side curtains on the automobile and he dark night, she could not see the faces of the men clearly. The man in the back seat with her, wore a light overcoat and a light hat, she testified.

O'BRIEN CAR IS LOCATED

Insurance Company Notifies Earl O'Brien Buick Was Found at Wolf Point, Montana

ITS DRIVER BEING HELD

Car Was Taken From Curb On Front Street, While O'Brien's Attended Theatre

Earl O'Brien received notice from the insurance company on Wednesday afternoon, stating that his Buick automobile, which was stolen on last Saturday evening, had been found at Wolf Point, Montana, less than four days later.

A John Anderson, thought to be an officer at Wolf Point, is holding the Buick and its driver, who gave his name as Bob Carlson. If Carlson does not fight extradition, he will be brought back to Brainerd to face charges of automobile theft.

Mr. O'Brien is well satisfied with the excellent service rendered by the insurance company in locating the car so quickly. It was taken from the curb on Front street, late Saturday evening, while the O'Briens were attending the theatre. Some delay was caused in starting the search for it because the license numbers could not be remembered or the license receipt located.

Wolf Point, Montana is said to be 741 miles by rail from Brainerd, and no doubt much farther by highway, so that Carlson did considerable driving in the four days previous to his capture. No details of the chase or arrest are available.

ELECTION RETURNS, CHAMBER COMMERCE

Open House There on Tuesday Evening, Nov. 4, Cafeteria Lunch Served

LAKE COMMITTEE REPORTS

"Better Sires" Special Committee Reported Through Chairman S. R. Adair

Election returns on the evening of November 4th, will be received at the Chamber of Commerce, that association to hold open house on that evening, according to an announcement made by E. J. Quinn, chairman of the house and social committee, at the regular meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday night. A cafeteria lunch will be served during the evening by the committee, and the election returns service open to everyone.

The special committee, appointed by the Chamber to solicit funds for the Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota Association, submitted a written report stating that a total of $672 was subscribed in the drive, of which $668 was collected.

The report states that this money was turned over to R. R. Wise, president of the association, and the one hundred dollars, of the amount which is to be used for advertising the Brainerd lake region is to be subject to the call of chamber.

Forty-six dollars of the amount collected was used in advertising Brainerd during the American Legion convention at St. Paul recently, so that the actual amount turned over to the Ten Thousand Lakes Association for its fund was only $522. J. H. Krekelberg was chairman of the special committee that made the drive.

Brainerd and vicinity has received some exceptionally favorable advertising during the past few months, according to the report of the publicity committee, tendered at Wednesday evening's meeting. Brainerd's "Better Sires Day" was given extensive space in both articles and pictures, in newspapers and periodicals of wide circulation. These included the Minneapolis Tribune, several prominent farm papers, and the American Bankers agricultural magazine.

The Chamber of Commerce, acting through the publicity committee, was instrumental in shaping sentiment and assisting to gain the Elks great state convention in 1925, which is expected to bring thousands to Brainerd. At a recent meeting of state association of Elks, intense interest was shown by Minneapolis lodge members in the coming Brainerd convention. State officers plan to bring their families and spend their annual vacation at Brainerd. It is expected that so great will be the influx of visitors that all hotels, summer resorts, cottages, homes, etc., will be needed to carry out the housing program.

Another convention coming to Brainerd next season, and which will be a noteworthy one, is that of the Northern Minnesota Medical Society. Doctors J. A. Thabes and R. A. Baise were instrumental in securing this convention, and it is expected that there will be about two hundred present.

The Pure Bred Sire committee submitted its detailed report of the activities of the committee and the fund raised during the campaign, and the chamber has asked that it be published in detail, which will be done in the Dispatch later.

Henry I. Cohen brought up the matter of completing the paving of Trunk Highway No. 27 between Belle Prairie and Brainerd, and a general discussion followed. Any action on the matter was deferred until a later date.

Four new members were added to the Chamber, being DeSmids confectionery store, Anson E. Hagel, manager of the Brainerd Model Laundry, Emil H. Puff, of the Elektrik Maid Bake Shop, and Ernest Bersley, employed by the Eagle Provision Company.

ELECTION RETURNS, CHAMBER COMMERCE

Open House There on Tuesday Evening, Nov. 4, Cafeteria Lunch Served

LAKE COMMITTEE REPORTS

"Better Sires" Special Committee Reported Through Chairman S. R. Adair

Election returns on the evening of November 4th, will be received at the Chamber of Commerce, that association to hold open house on that evening, according to an announcement made by E. J. Quinn, chairman of the house and social committee, at the regular meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday night. A cafeteria lunch will be served during the evening by the committee, and the election returns service open to everyone.

The special committee, appointed by the Chamber to solicit funds for the Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota Association, submitted a written report stating that a total of $672 was subscribed in the drive, of which $668 was collected.

The report states that this money was turned over to R. R. Wise, president of the association, and the one hundred dollars, of the amount which is to be used for advertising the Brainerd lake region is to be subject to the call of chamber.

Forty-six dollars of the amount collected was used in advertising Brainerd during the American Legion convention at St. Paul recently, so that the actual amount turned over to the Ten Thousand Lakes Association for its fund was only $522. J. H. Krekelberg was chairman of the special committee that made the drive.

Brainerd and vicinity has received some exceptionally favorable advertising during the past few months, according to the report of the publicity committee, tendered at Wednesday evening's meeting. Brainerd's "Better Sires Day" was given extensive space in both articles and pictures, in newspapers and periodicals of wide circulation. These included the Minneapolis Tribune, several prominent farm papers, and the American Bankers agricultural magazine.

The Chamber of Commerce, acting through the publicity committee, was instrumental in shaping sentiment and assisting to gain the Elks great state convention in 1925, which is expected to bring thousands to Brainerd. At a recent meeting of state association of Elks, intense interest was shown by Minneapolis lodge members in the coming Brainerd convention. State officers plan to bring their families and spend their annual vacation at Brainerd. It is expected that so great will be the influx of visitors that all hotels, summer resorts, cottages, homes, etc., will be needed to carry out the housing program.

Another convention coming to Brainerd next season, and which will be a noteworthy one, is that of the Northern Minnesota Medical Society. Doctors J. A. Thabes and R. A. Beise were instrumental in securing this convention, and it is expected that there will be about two hundred present.

The Pure Bred Sire committee submitted its detailed report of the activities of the committee and the fund raised during the campaign, and the chamber has asked that it be published in detail, which will be done in the Dispatch later.

Henry I. Cohen brought up the matter of completing the paving of Trunk Highway No. 27 between Belle Prairie and Brainerd, and a general discussion followed. Any action on the matter was deferred until a later date.

Four new members were added to the Chamber, being DeSmidsdt's confectionery store, Anson E. Hagel, manager of the Brainerd Model Laundry, Emil H. Puff, of the Elektrik Maid Bake Shop, and Ernest Bersley, employed by the Eagle Provision Company.

ORGANIZE FOR 8TH ANNUAL ROLL CALL

Central Division of the American Red Cross is on the last lap of its organization for the Eighth Annual Roll Call with all of its ten states practically ready to begin the actual enrollment of members. When Armistice Day dawns, more than 800 chapters in this division will put in motion the organization of loyal men and women whose aim it will be to give every American citizen a chance to enroll.

A friendly spirit of competition has been aroused among these states. In an effort to secure memberships which shall be representative, Red Cross officials are using every means to reach the people. Reports received daily at Central Division from Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Nebraska, Montana, the Dakotas, Wyoming and Wisconsin are the most enthusiastic forecasts in years.

Red Cross membership is on the upward trend as shown by last year's enrollment which reached almost 4,000,000. Indications are to the effect that this figure will be exceeded this year.

STEAM HOSE ON ENGINE BROKE

Hot Steam Escaped on Elkins' Lower Limbs and Right Arm

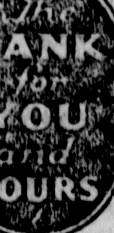

John F. Elkins, foreman at the Northern Pacific shops, was severely scalded on Tuesday afternoon, and is confined to his home, 913 Main street, from the effects of the burns. Mr. Elkins is said to have been making a final inspection of an engine before it was taken out of the shops for a road test, after being overhauled and repaired.

While he was making this final inspection, a steam hose on the engine broke, and the hot steam escaped on Mr. Elkins lower limbs and right arm, scalding these members severely.

He is resting quite easily today, and physicians state that it is expected that he will be able to get about in about a week. Mr. Elkins will appreciate calls from his friends in the meantime.

Missionary Society

The Women's Missionary society of the Evangelical church will meet in the church Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The topic is "Evangelicals at Work in China." Leader is Mrs. John Zander. Every member is urged to be present. Visitors are welcome.

GAME HEARTS WON FOR THE SENATORS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Some time back in this column some opinions were expressed as to the reasons why the Washington Senators won the American League pennant. Excerpts were quoted from the famous battle statement that "Bucky" Harris, the 28-year-old manager, issued when the team was fighting for its life in Cleveland.

"Bucky" said in that statement that his team could not be beaten in the race for the American League pennant because no other club had as much spirit or any more fight.

Washington had to play good baseball throughout the season to win its first American League pennant. The Senators had good baseball hands and good legs, but it was a stout fighting heart that carried the team through to a victory over the Yanks and to a world's championship over the New York Giants.

The Senators beat the Giants in one of the greatest world's series ever played, because the team refused to quit. No intimation is intended that the Giants quit, but it is a fact that the Giants didn't fight as consistently and as desperately as the American League champions.

Year after year the Giants have been one of the greatest fighting clubs in baseball. Giant players can't be quitters or "bunny hearts" and remain on John McGraw's club. The Giants have won pennant after pennant with an inferior team, because they wouldn't give up. For three years running they have outgamed the Pittsburgh Pirates, a much stronger team, until the crisis came. Pittsburgh curled up three times in a pinch, but the Giants always hit the hardest when the need was most vital and they became champions.

When a team outgits the New York Giants it is a team that has more fight and more spirit than any team that has been developed in years. The New York Yankees didn't outfight the Giants in the series last year, they outplayed them and outpitched them.

Washington, in the world's series this year, had the spirit and fight of a college football team. The Senators refused to be beaten and they weren't beaten. They had the spirit that the Giants lacked. The Giants had the heart but they became wearied in the battle and something cropped into their attitude that suggested a feeling—"What's the use? If we swing, we get hit right back on the chin."

The Giants experienced a lot of things that took the spirit out of them. Giant teams, as a rule, are rather deaf to the stands. For years they have been targets of hostile fans on the road and they never have been supported at home with the enthusiasm of a Washington, a St. Louis or a Cincinnati. But the Giants, hard-hearted as they may have become, hardly could have expected to be razed and thrown down by New York as they were in the third, fourth and fifth games of the series. The Giants must have been glad to get back to Washington to finish the fight.

The scandal that resulted in the ousting of Cozy Dolan and Jimmy O'Connell cast suspicion on the whole club. Frank Frisch, George Kelly and Ross Young had been implicated by O'Connell and although they were white-washed by Commissioner Landis, the suspicion still existed—"Were others in on it, if Young, Kelly and Frisch were not?"

HAS ROSY VIEW OF MINNESOTA

THINKS TEAM HAS ABOUT EQUAL
SHOW WITH ILLINOIS
NOV. 15

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—Luck seems to have been with Minnesota when it placed Illinois on its schedule for the final Conference game of the season. If the Gopher season goes along as it well may, without a defeat prior to Nov. 15, the set-to between Illinois and Minnesota at the time of the Stadium dedication will just about decide the conference championship. The present writer believes that there are six chances out of ten that this will take place, and almost an even chance for Minnesota to conquer Zuppke's crowd when they travel to Minneapolis.

Despite its failure to get better than a tie against Wisconsin, Minnesota is a good team and will prove it as the season progresses. What it must have if it is to be a Minnesota team that will be remembered, is at least one more really good end. Of Wheeler's ability to hold down the left wing, there is little doubt, even though he is no Eklund as yet. At the other extremity of the line there will be danger until vast improvement has been shown.

The Gopher team has plenty of material, plenty of power and ability, and the best of coaching. If it takes 100 per cent advantage of these it will be an unusually hard team to beat. If it goes through the games wondering what the Sunday newspapers are going to say, its opponents are sure to give the sports experts something to talk about.

The Iowa game Saturday looks like a Minnesota victory, just as Wisconsin did a week ago. But let no one think that the Michigan team that will face the Gophers at Homecoming can be judged by the score at Urbana. It will take every ounce of skill and strength that Saulding's team has to beat Yost's crowd, or Little's, if it is the latter this year. The Little Brown Jug will have a neck-ache before it decides finally which way to turn.

Peter Guzy, the diminutive substitute quarterback, demonstrated his known skill against Wisconsin and will be relied on more in games to come than he has been before. Graham had a very sore side, and when Bill Foote was handling the team he had little choice but to call for punts, since the ball was deep in Minnesota territory. It must be remembered that Graham and Peplaw, both injured, represent the top speed of the Minnesota ball-carriers. With them in shape to perform at their best, the team will be able to astonish some of the fans.

Many a football player could learn a lesson from "Red" Grange. That statement seems obvious enough, but the fact is that Grange is a man who rises to tremendous heights when the moment of big demand comes. He has a frantic enthusiasm for outdoing himself in a major task. He seems to have the "plus" that the success and personality magazines talk about. And the "plus" is often the margin that wins. Grange happens to be better than almost anyone else without considering the "plus", but any really good man who fiercely makes that fractional addition to his usual pace is likely to accomplish something that is noteworthy.

Coach Sherman Finger of the Freshman squad has cut his 135 players to 55, among whom is some material that will make Minnesota football history, provided the young men in question keep up their classroom work. Minnesota has been unusually fortunate this year in having players who were good in their lessons. For next year there must be a lot of good football material with satisfactory classroom technique, for the Gophers are going to lose most of their veterans when the curtain is dropped on the present season.

BRAINERD HIGH TO MEET STAPLES HERE ON FRIDAY

GAME IS SCHEDULED TO START
AT 3:30 IN THE AFTER-
NOON

REGULARS ARE BACK IN THE
BRAINERD LINE-
UP

(Contributed)

Friday, Oct. 24, the Brainerd high school football team will meet the fast Staples high school aggregation at the local field. The game is scheduled to start at 3:30 p. m.

Earlier in the season when Brainerd went to Staples they were defeated, being outplayed in every department of the game, but the green team then, has developed so that now they are playing like seasoned veterans.

Last Saturday, due to the loss of five of the regulars, the team made a rather poor showing at Crosby, but now nearly all the regulars will be back on the squad, more determined than ever to give Staples a good battle.

Dieckhaus will be back at quarter back with Buscher and Gile in reserve. DeKocher will probably be in a tackle position, thus adding to the strength of the line. Burns will appear in his regular position, left guard. Opsahl will be available for an end position if called upon.

Following is the starting lineup: L. E. Koop; L. T. DeKocher; L. G. Burns or Lawrenz; C. Larson; R. G. Pihlstrom; R. T. Tribur; R. E. Lawrenz or Opsahl; L. H. Lyndon; R. H. Rosenberg; F. B. Putz; Q. B. Gile or Dieckhaus.

La Voi Making Good as Coach at Crookston

Another Minnesota graduate has made good at the coaching line, an art in which several other Gophers are shining. He is D. H. La Voi, a graduate of the school of agriculture, and is coaching the Crookston Aggies. The team under his leadership has counted ninety points, while only one touchdown was scored against his team. The Crookston Aggies have won three straight games, the most recent of which was a 34 to 0 victory over the Morris Aggies last Saturday.

While at Minnesota La Voi took an active part in athletics, especially basketball and intramural sports. Previous to his work at Crookston he coached the Northwest school and developed an organization which was one of the best in the country.

GAME HEARTS WON FOR THE SENATORS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Some time back in this column some opinions were expressed as to the reasons why the Washington Senators won the American League pennant. Excerpts were quoted from the famous battle statement that "Bucky" Harris, the 28-year-old manager, issued when the team was fighting for its life in Cleveland.

"Bucky" said in that statement that his team could not be beaten in the race for the American League pennant because no other club had as much spirit or any more fight.

Washington had to play good baseball throughout the season to win its first American League pennant. The Senators had good baseball hands and good legs, but it was a stout fighting heart that carried the team through to a victory over the Yanks and to a world's championship over the New York Giants.

The Senators beat the Giants in one of the greatest world's series ever played, because the team refused to quit. No intimation is intended that the Giants quit, but it is a fact that the Giants didn't fight as consistently and as desperately as the American League champions.

Year after year the Giants have been one of the greatest fighting clubs in baseball. Giant players can't be quitters or "bunny hearts" and remain on John McGraw's club. The Giants have won pennant after pennant with an inferior team, because they wouldn't give up. For three years running they have outgamed the Pittsburgh Pirates, a much stronger team, until the crisis came. Pittsburgh curled up three times in a pinch, but the Giants always hit the hardest when the need was most vital and they became champions.

When a team outfights the New York Giants it is a team that has more fight and more spirit than any team that has been developed in years. The New York Yankees didn't outfight the Giants in the series last year, they outplayed them and outpitched them.

Washington, in the world's series this year, had the spirit and fight of a college football team. The Senators refused to be beaten and they weren't beaten. They had the spirit that the Giants lacked. The Giants had the heart but they became wearied in the battle and something cropped into their attitude that suggested a feeling—"What's the use? If we swing, we get hit right back on the chin."

The Giants experienced a lot of things that took the spirit out of them. Giant teams, as a rule, are rather deaf to the stands. For years they have been targets of hostile fans on the road and they never have been supported at home with the enthusiasm of a Washington, a St. Louis or a Cincinnati. But the Giants, hard-hearted as they may have become, hardly could have expected to be razed and thrown down by New York as they were in the third, fourth and fifth games of the series. The Giants must have been glad to get back to Washington to finish the fight.

The scandal that resulted in the ousting of Cozy Dolan and Jimmy O'Connell cast suspicion on the whole club. Frank Frisch, George Kelly and Ross Young had been implicated by O'Connell and although they were white-washed by Commissioner Landis, the suspicion still existed—"Were others in on it, if Young, Kelly and Frisch were not?"

HAS ROSY VIEW OF MINNESOTA

THINKS TEAM HAS ABOUT EQUAL
SHOW WITH ILLINOIS
NOV. 15

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—Luck seems to have been with Minnesota when it placed Illinois on its schedule for the final Conference game of the season. If the Gopher season goes along as it well may, without a defeat prior to Nov. 15, the set-to between Illinois and Minnesota at the time of the Stadium dedication will just about decide the conference championship. The present writer believes that there are six chances out of ten that this will take place, and almost an even chance for Minnesota to conquer Zuppke's crowd when they travel to Minneapolis.

Despite its failure to get better than a tie against Wisconsin, Minnesota is a good team and will prove it as the season progresses. What it must have if it is to be a Minnesota team that will be remembered, is at least one more really good end. Of Wheeler's ability to hold down the left wing, there is little doubt, even though he is no Eklund as yet. At the other extremity of the line there will be danger until vast improvement has been shown.

The Gopher team has plenty of material, plenty of power and ability, and the best of coaching. If it takes 100 per cent advantage of these it will be an unusually hard team to beat. If it goes through the games wondering what the Sunday newspapers are going to say, its opponents are sure to give the sports experts something to talk about.

The Iowa game Saturday looks like a Minnesota victory, just as Wisconsin did a week ago. But let no one think that the Michigan team that will face the Gophers at Homecoming can be judged by the score at Urbana. It will take every ounce of skill and strength that Sandling's team has to beat Yost's crowd, or Little's, if it is the latter this year. The Little Brown Jug will have a neck-ache before it decides finally which way to turn.

Peter Guzy, the diminutive substitute quarterback, demonstrated his known skill against Wisconsin and will be relied on more in games to come than he has been before. Graham had a very sore side, and when Bill Foote was handling the team he had little choice but to call for punts, since the ball was deep in Minnesota territory. It must be remembered that Graham and Peplaw, both injured, represent the top speed of the Minnesota ball-carriers. With them in shape to perform at their best, the team will be able to astonish some of the fans.

Many a football player could learn a lesson from "Red" Grange. That statement seems obvious enough, but the fact is that Grange is a man who rises to tremendous heights when the moment of big demand comes. He has a frantic enthusiasm for outdoing himself in a major task. He seems to have the "plus" that the success and personality magazines talk about. And the "plus" is often the margin that wins. Grange happens to be better than almost anyone else without considering the "plus", but any really good man who ferily makes that fractional addition to his usual pace is likely to accomplish something that is noteworthy.

Coach Sherman Finger of the Freshman squad has cut his 135 players to 55, among whom is some material that will make Minnesota football history, provided the young men in question keep up their classroom work. Minnesota has been unusually fortunate this year in having players who were good in their lessons. For next year there must be a lot of good football material with satisfactory classroom technique, for the Gophers are going to lose most of their veterans when the curtain is dropped on the present season.

BRAINERD HIGH TO MEET STAPLES HERE ON FRIDAY

GAME IS SCHEDULED TO START
AT 3:30 IN THE AFTER-
NOON

REGULARS ARE BACK IN THE
BRAINERD LINE-
UP

(Contributed)

Friday, Oct. 24, the Brainerd high school football team will meet the fast Staples high school aggregation at the local field. The game is scheduled to start at 3:30 p. m.

Earlier in the season when Brainerd went to Staples they were defeated, being outplayed in every department of the game, but the green team then, has developed so that now they are playing like seasoned veterans.

Last Saturday, due to the loss of five of the regulars, the team made a rather poor showing at Crosby, but now nearly all the regulars will be back on the squad, more determined than ever to give Staples a good battle.

Dieckhaus will be back at quarter back with Buscher and Gile in reserve. DeRoche will probably be in a tackle position, thus adding to the strength of the line. Burns will appear in his regular position, left guard. Opsahl will be available for an end position if called upon.

Following is the starting lineup: L. E. Koop; L. T. DeRoche; L. G. Burns or Lawrence; C. Larson; R. G. Pihlstrom; R. T. Tribur; R. E. Lawrence or Opsahl; L. H. Lyndon; R. H. Rosenberg; F. B. Putz; Q. B. Gile or Dieckhaus.

STAG OF ST. PAUL ELKS ON THURSDAY

It is the opening stag of the season, and it is hoped that all will turn out. It is for members only, and there is no admission charge.

There is a playlet written by Ed Helperin, vaudeville number and music.

Following the musical program there will be a boxing card with the following bouts:

Jimmy Luger vs. Jack Kennedy, Al Thor vs. Jack Holm, Al Monak vs. Eddie McFadden, "Wildcat" Eddie Mason vs. Nick Lombardo, Doc Holly vs. Viv Walthers, Paddy Mullins vs. Frankie Gruber, Eddie Burch vs. Jimmy Britton.

La Voi Making Good as Coach at Crookston

Another Minnesota graduate has made good at the coaching line, an art in which several other Gophers are shining. He is D. H. La Voi, a graduate of the school of agriculture, and is coaching the Crookston Aggies. The team under his leadership has counted ninety points, while only one touchdown was scored against his team. The Crookston Aggies have won three straight games, the most recent of which was a 34 to 0 victory over the Morris Aggies last Saturday.

While at Minnesota La Voi took an active part in athletics, especially basketball and intramural sports. Previous to his work at Crookston he coached the Northwest school and developed an organization which was one of the best in the country.

Jackson Erratic at Short

Despite the fact that John McGraw says that Jackson is the best shortstop in the National league, he looked very erratic in the world series games. Most of his errors were of a costly nature.
